

Dow Announces Polyol Increase

POLYOL PRICE ACTION

Dear Valued Customer:

Effective October 1, 2014, or as soon thereafter as the applicable contract allows, The Dow Chemical Company (“Dow”) will increase its price for all grades of VORANOL™, VORALUX™, and SPECFLEX™ Polyols by US $0.07/pound for all market segments in the United States.

All other contract terms and conditions remain in full force and effect and orders must comply with established monthly sales levels and contract commitments. Your sales representative will be contacting you in order to answer any questions you might have and to review your sales plan volumes.

Dow appreciates your business, and we look forward to our continued relationship.
